

The world needs great women...it starts at The Study. Founded 1915, and recognized as one of Canada's premier girls' schools, The Study actively fosters the development of character, confidence and visionary thinking. Dedicated teachers and staff offer a stimulating bilingual environment to 380 students from Kindergarten to Grade 11.

Enseignant(e) de français au primaire

We are looking for an enthusiastic and talented elementary school Français langue maternelle teacher to offer creative and diverse programming that engages students to think critically and creatively. This is a full-time position to commence immediately. The successful candidate will complement an exceptional and accomplished teaching faculty in the Elementary School.

Position Requirements:

- A demonstrated ability to differentiate instructional practices for a diverse community of learners in an elementary school classroom setting
- An ability to enhance learning through information technology
- A desire to work enthusiastically and collaboratively with other faculty
- A passion for teaching and a familiarity with best practices for teaching girls
- A commitment to the co-curricular life of the school through involvement in school activities

Work and Educational Experience:

- A bachelor's degree with formal training in teaching français, langue maternelle in the primary years
- A Bachelor of Education and a Brevet d'enseignement
- Comprehensive understanding of current educational practices, including assessment practices

Letters of application and a CV, should be sent to careers@thestudy.qc.ca by Friday, March 15, 2019. We thank all candidates in advance. However, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.